Just in time for Christmas, the new website for the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) is now live. The new NAFTA website is an improved way to navigate the information contained in the trade agreement and the special reports on this website, such as the NAFTA Impact Analysis and the North American Supply Chain Coalition. The website includes a searchable database, an interactive map, and detailed chapters on the new features of NAFTA, as well as a host of information about the North American integration of production, trade, and governance. The launch coincides with a special event on Dec. 18 hosted by a bipartisan group of U.S. lawmakers and a group of state and local government officials calling for an end to NAFTA's Chapter 11 investor state provisions.
